

What does the ceiling look like?

On the following page are some photos of the many stain and paint options we offer for our structures.

Red Cedar Gable Roof 16x20, unstained, White Plains, MD

14x18 Red Cedar Gable Roof, Cedar Stain, York, MN

(cont'd on next page)

What does the ceiling look like?

20x20 Red Cedar Trad'l (hip) Roof, Rustic Cedar color, McCamey, LA

(cont'd on next page)

What does the ceiling look like?

16x16 Vinyl Hip, unstained, Lexington, SC

(cont'd on next page)

What does the ceiling look like?

19x17 Vinyl Open Gable, Grandville, MI

(cont'd on next page)

What does the ceiling look like?

14x16 Vinyl Traditional (hip) Roof. Painted with Benjamin Moore 2054-70 Clear Skies. Levittown, NY

(cont'd on next page)

What does the ceiling look like?

16x24 Vinyl Hip, unstained, Myrtle Beach, SC

(cont'd on next page)

What does the ceiling look like?

11x20 Pressure Treated Open Gable, 3:12 roof pitch, white paint, Napa, CA

(cont'd on next page)

What does the ceiling look like?

14x16 Grand Cedar, Walnut Stain, Seminole, OK

(cont'd on next page)

What does the ceiling look like?

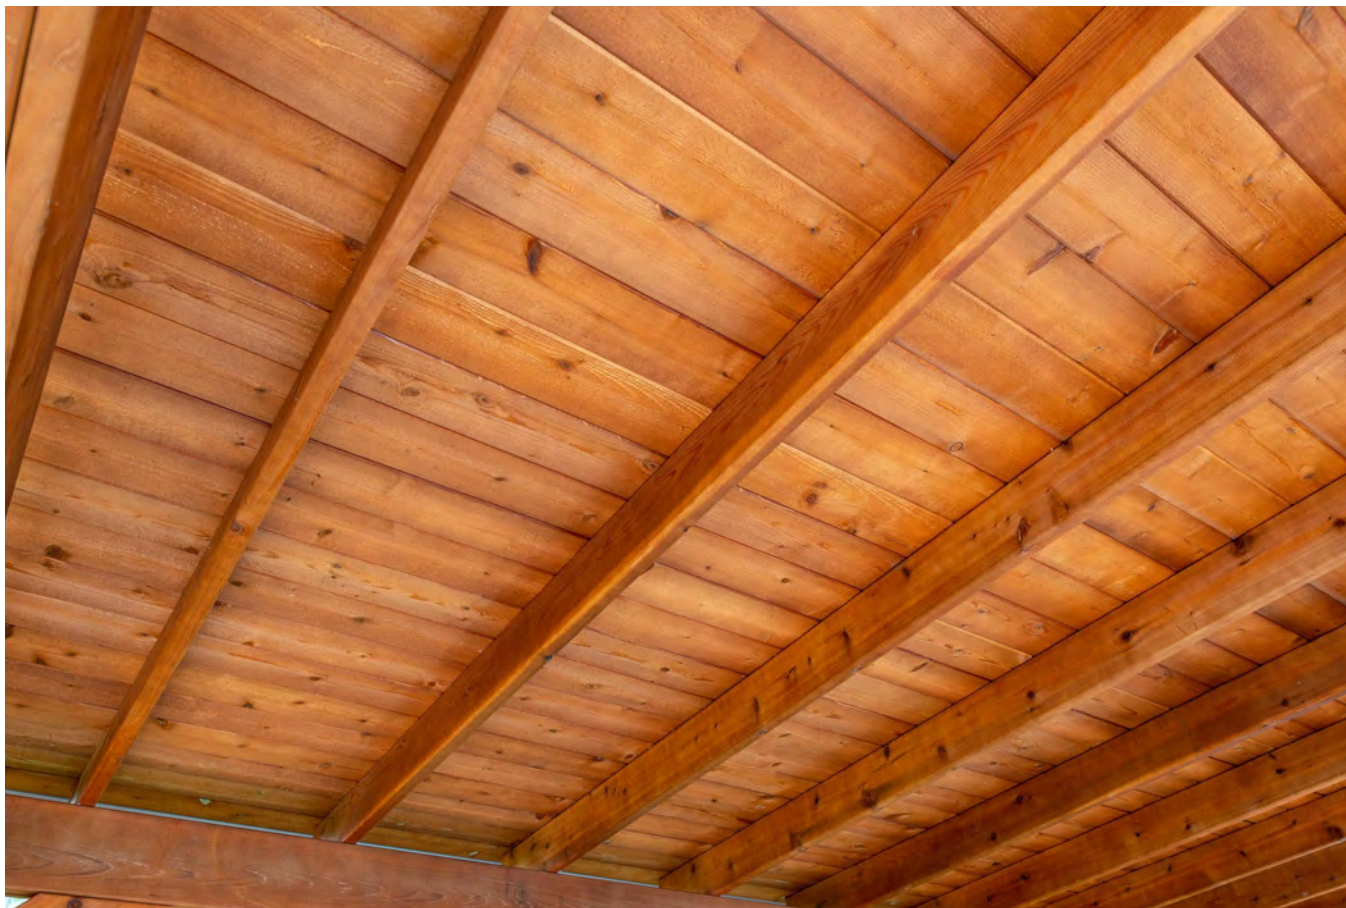

17x17 Grand Cedar, Maple color stain, Copperopolis, CA

(cont'd on next page)

What does the ceiling look like?

12x18 Red Cedar Lean-To, Cedar color stain, Menomonee Falls, WI

What does the ceiling look like?

14x14 Grand Cedar Pavilion, 12:12 roof pitch, optional cedar tongue and groove ceiling, stained, Oklahoma City, OK

What does the ceiling look like?

Wall-mounted vinyl gable pavilion, optional vinyl ceiling, Milton, GA